

Specialist Counsellor

Roles & Responsibilities

The Specialist Counsellor works as part of the national 1800RESPECT telephone counselling team providing highly specialised services to those whose lives have been impacted by domestic and family violence.

Key skills & experience

- Experience and understanding of issues relating to service delivery with an agency that is committed to socially and culturally inclusive practices
- Understanding of federal and state based legislation
- Excellent communications skills
- Commitment to the values and purpose of DVConnect
- Ability to work with people from Culturally and Linguistically Diverse backgrounds, including through use of telephone interpreting services
- Demonstrated cultural responsiveness and commitment to working with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Ability to work across a 24/7 roster
- Able to demonstrate a high level of resilience
- Solid IT skills

Required Credentials

- Tertiary qualification (of minimum 3 years duration) in relevant field e.g. Social and Behavioural Sciences
- Eligible for membership with one of the following governing bodies - AASW, AHPRA, ACA or PACFA
- Minimum 3 years specialist counselling experience
- National Police Check
- Current Working with Vulnerable People/Working with Children Check
- Right to work in Australia
- Must be female

Primary Working Location

Ability to work from the Brisbane office or from home in a hybrid model

DVCONNECT
Be heard. Be safe.